

Russia Silent on 'Man in Space' Attempt

Earlier Failure Cited

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A U. S. radar station in Alaska tracked an object with "missile characteristics" rising out of Russia for six minutes Friday night headed for the Pacific Ocean, the Defense Department said today.

The Defense announcement cast no light on the question of whether the Russian were merely testing a missile or trying to launch a satellite, perhaps with a man aboard. But it coincided with two significant U. S. reports on the Soviet man-in-space program.

THE HEAD OF THE U. S. Civilian Space Agency said a Russian attempt to put a Red astronaut into orbit might be coming up soon, perhaps timed to take the edge off the inauguration of President-elect John F. Kennedy.

THE SEPTEMBER report was disclosed by Lt. Col. Paul D. Hickman of the Armed Forces Industrial College at a national security seminar in Honolulu Friday. He said the Russian flop resulted in the demotion of the scientists in charge and orders to a new "team" to get a man in space "immediately."

Because the Soviet ships were not expected to reach the impact area until today and Russia has not warned of a rocket shot, the Navy was inclined to believe the object fired Friday night was a satellite rather than a missile whose nose cone the Russians would want to fish from the ocean. Other sources, however, felt the object was a missile.

Russia Demands U. S. Stop Ship Stopping Acts

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union demanded today that the United States cease immediately what it called provocative acts by American warships against Soviet vessels in neutral waters.

Blood Bank Visit Set for Monday

Final reminder of the Riverside-San Bernardino two-county Blood Bank visit at Desert Hospital from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., Monday, was issued today by hospital administrator Robert Henwood.

Translator TV to Close Down Sunday

Translator TV will close down following Sunday night's programs due to users of the service not contributing sufficient funds to operate it for the remainder of this year, president Frank Bennett reported today.

He said that $155 was received in donations Friday, leaving $7,050 of the $15,000 still to be raised before service is resumed.

Weather
Desert area forecast:
Mostly clear today through Sunday. Little change in temperatures. High temperatures today 62 to 72 upper valleys 72 to 82 lower valleys.

NEW FIGHTING IN CONGO TOLD

MRS. RUBY AIKIN, wife of Dr. William Aikin, comforts her son Billy James (Jay), 7, while he awaits the arrival of the ambulance to take him to Desert Hospital. Both Mrs. Aikin and her son were injured when, according to police, she pulled across the highway at Araby Drive in front of a car driven by Robert Taylor McCrea, 33, of Cathedral City. At right is a family friend, Mrs. Helen Kinnaman. (P.S. Newsphoto)

Six Injured In Five Area Accidents

All Injuries Described As 'Minor'

Mrs. Ruby Aikin, wife of Dr. William Aikin, and their son, Billy James, 7, were released from Desert Hospital this morning after spending the night for observation.

The two were injured in an automobile crash about 6 p.m. last night as Mrs. Aikin attempted to cross Highway 111 at Araby Drive, police said.

OFFICERS SAID that Mrs. Aikin had pulled her car across the highway in front of a car driven by Robert Taylor McCrea, 33, of Cathedral City, who suffered a cut lip and abrasions of the knees.

Most seriously hurt in the crash was Billy Aikin, who suffered a deep laceration of the forehead, which needed eight stitches.

IN ANOTHER accident in Palm Springs yesterday, Francis Edward Markley of Palm Springs and Wilber S. Ramano of Ather-ton, were involved in a minor collision on North Indian Avenue in front of the Riviera Hotel.

At 4 a.m., today, a third crash, which ended with the jailing of Alton C. Burhans, 39, of Palm Springs, occurred on Indian Avenue in front of the Lone Palm Hotel.

Police said that Burhans ran into two parked cars belonging to car rental agencies. He suffered minor injuries but refused treatment.

IN THE COUNTY area, the California Highway Patrol is investigating an accident on Highway 111 near Windy Point in which Hazel Alice Hall, 37, of Cabazon, was injured when her car hit a sand shoulder and turned over three or four times.

And in Palm Desert, James Gilbert Hickey, 32, of Sunnymead was injured when he crashed into a cement foundation and corner post as he was traveling west on Palm Village Road. He was treated at Casita Hospital for minor injuries.

Newspaper Goal Told Rotarians by Sun Publisher

"A community newspaper is your newspaper," Palm Desert Rotarians were told yesterday by Carl W. Schooss, Desert Sun publisher. The remarks were part of a talk given by the publisher at the service club's regular luncheon meeting at the Shadow Mountain club. Schooss was introduced by Sun staffer Paul Stillman.

Pointing out that a newspaper's job was to serve all of its community, Schooss said that if the newspaper is doing its job there will be an identity of interest and purpose with its readers and advertisers. "We strive toward that goal," he said, "and are our own most severe critics."

The publisher announced the plans for a new building, a new 48 page press and new typesetting equipment as part of a continuing program of improvement.

NEWSMAN'S HOLIDAY was taken in Palm Springs Friday by Frank Bartholomew, left, president of the world-wide United Press International, who stopped off for a one-day rest, visited The Desert Sun to renew a long-standing friendship with Sun publisher Carl Schooss. Bartholomew, veteran newsman who was once West Coast United Press chief, reviewed international and domestic events with Schooss and Desert Sun editorial staffers. (Desert Sun Photo)

UPI HEAD GIVES VIEWS ON 'WORLD'

Frank Bartholomew, veteran newsman president of United Press International, told The Desert Sun Friday that "a lot of fingers are on a lot of triggers" around the world, but that the world "isn't really worse off than it was 100, 200, or 300 years ago."

Bartholomew, here for a hurried one-day rest en route to the New York headquarters of the giant news agency covering 92 nations, visited Palm Springs growing UPI member daily on a newsman's holiday.

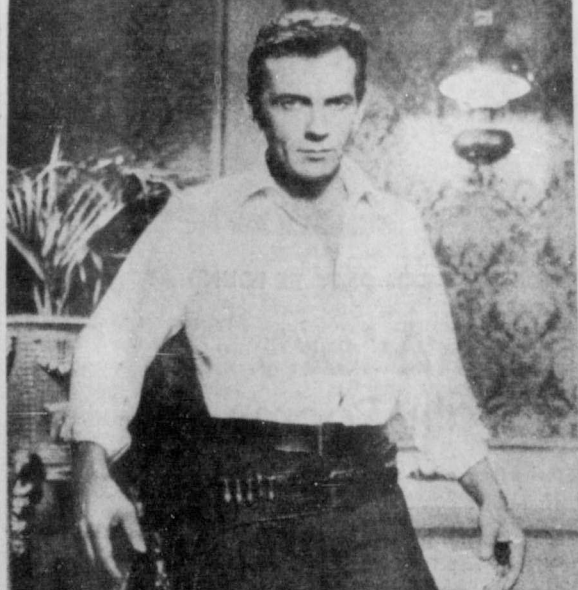

TERMING THE Cuban situation "extremely dangerous," Bartholomew said bearded Fidel Castro is "a mesmerized rabble rouser" who has "no penchant for government." Castro, Bartholomew said, is sparked by egotism which renders him "insane."

Russian backing of Castro makes the USSR "partners in liability," who will need to feed and support the island nation. The situation is "a race between mounting Russian aid" and withdrawal of South American recognition, and mounting Cuban unrest.

"APPARENTLY 30 per cent of all Cubans are anti-Castro," Bartholomew said. Citing the need for strong anti-Castro leadership.

Mass Strike Meeting Set

EL CENTRO (UPI)—An uneasy quiet hung over the Imperial Valley today as domestic farm workers prepared to gather at Sunday's mass strike meeting at Daylexico.

JACK KELLY, popular star of ABC-TV's "Maverick" series, has been named Grand Marshal for the 21st Annual Palm Springs Rodeo. Kelly will ride at the head of the two-mile-long parade which kicks off the two-day western event on Saturday morning, Jan. 28.

Belgian Soldiers Attacked

LEOPOLDVILLE (UPI)—Congolese soldiers loyal to ex-Premier Patrice Lumumba stormed across the border of the Belgian United Nations trusteeship of Ruanda-Urundi and fired on Belgian soldiers there, a U. N. spokesman disclosed today.

The spokesman said no reason for the attack could be given except that the Congolese "just wanted to fight the Belgians." The number of casualties was not known, the spokesman said. He said the incident began Thursday night and that sporadic firing was heard Friday night.

TROOPS LOYAL to army strongman Col. Joseph Mobutu crossed into Kivu Province from Ruanda-Urundi New Year's Day and attacked Lumumbist troops and the latest incident may have been in retaliation.

The United Nations also reported that Congolese troops in Kivu had captured seven Belgian paratroopers who said they crossed into the Congo by mistake from Ruanda-Urundi. The spokesman said the Belgians were unable to say how they had crossed a river by mistake but that negotiations were under way for their release.

AT BAKWANGA, IN Kasai Province, a Ghanaian U. N. soldier fired at Baluba tribesmen who attacked him, apparently killing one or more Balubas.

A U. N. spokesman disclosed that Moroccan troops flown to reinforce the Nigerian garrison at Manono in North Katanga province were prevented from landing when Lumumba troops fired on the plane as it rolled to a stop on the airstrip there.

A SIX-HOUR BATTLE followed the incident and five U. N. soldiers were injured. The U. N. troops and Lumumbists halted the fighting with a truce and the Moroccan troops were flown to Elisabethville, a spokesman said.

U. N. sources said three Moroccans and two Nigerian soldiers were wounded in the fighting. Lumumbist casualties were not immediately known.

Marine Plane Lands Safely

SANTA ANA (UPI)—A four-engine Marine Corps transport plane with 25 men aboard landed safely at El Toro Air Station today after losing an engine 1,020 miles off the coast on a flight from Honolulu.

A Coast Guard plane dispatched from San Francisco made a rendezvous with the R3B transport-military version of the DC-4—about 800 miles off the coast. Another Coast Guard plane from San Diego took over the escort as the transport neared the coast.

Negoes Return To School Set

ATHENS, Ga. (UPI)—Two Negroes removed from the University of Georgia after their first day of classes because of racial rioting will return Monday, and university officials said any white student who objects out loud may be suspended.

ACCIDENTS UP HERE IN 1961, REPORT

Traffic accidents in 1961 are moving slightly ahead of 1960, the Palm Springs Safety Council reported today in urging motorists to use extra care during this busy time of the year. There were six accidents since Jan. 1 of this year, compared to five in 1960, officials said.

Desert Area Items Set for Board Monday

Six items of special interest to Desert area residents are scheduled before the Board of Supervisors Monday morning in Riverside, headed by the canvassing of votes cast in the Desert Hot Springs incorporation and Sunair-Charlesworth Fire Protection District elections.

The incorporation bid failed, with the district receiving approval. One hearing is scheduled on the petition of City of Blythe for annexation of non-contiguous territory. Under planning items are recommendations to revoke the permit of Biller and Son for a wrecking yard in the Indio area, to change the name of Avenida Sierra in La Quinta District to Eisenhower Drive, and to change the name of Thunder Road in the Cathedral City-Palm Desert District to Bird Lane.

RISVOLD, JAYNES IN FLORIDA PAPER

SPECIAL TO THE DESERT SUN
BOCA RATON, Fla. — Ward J. Risvold and Oliver B. Jaynes, both former owners and publishers of The Desert Sun, have purchased the Boca Raton News and have taken over operation of the weekly newspaper in this Florida Gold Coast community.

Equal partners in the new venture, Risvold will serve as general manager, and Jaynes will supervise news and editorial direction.

RISVOLD, WHO was associated with The Desert Sun from 1952 until last fall when he disposed of his interest, moved to Florida late in December.

Jaynes moved to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., three years ago, where he and his son-in-law, John Coulton, developed the Harbor Beach Plaza shopping center.

Stahr to Be Army Secretary

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Announcement of the selection of Elvis J. Stahr Jr., president of the University of West Virginia, as secretary of the Army was expected shortly at the headquarters of President-elect John F. Kennedy.

The 44-year-old West Virginia educator was expected to complete the three service secretariat. Eugene Schukert.

Kate Hattstaedt to Celebrate 106th Birthday, But Quietly

Kate M. Hattstaedt celebrates her 106th birthday here tomorrow but there's a trace of sorrow in it for her — her doctor has told her that she can't go out "on the town" as she used to do.

Kate, who will be living with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Winter, after they finish moving into their new residence at 1790 North Via Miraleste, really used to live it up.

LAST YEAR SHE confined herself to dinner at the Chi Chi, but in prior occasions she would visit Romanoff's On the Rocks, Howard Manor, Chi Chi and Ruby's Dunes all in one sweep and demand to go to the Biltmore when the Winters were pleading to go home. A pace-setter in Chicago cultural circles as long ago as 1885, Mrs. Hattstaedt aided her late husband, John J. Hattstaedt in the creation of the famed American Conservatory of Music in Chicago in that year. It is still regarded as a cultural landmark in that city and as the point of origin for many of Chicago's other cultural endeavors.

NOW RESIDING at the Palm Springs Convalescent Hospital, Kate observed wryly that Dr. P. A. Staley, her physician, advised against a birthday party "until after my annual checkup."

Still a witty conversationalist, Mrs. Hattstaedt recites at the drop of a suggestion. Here's one that is a good deal more philosophy than prose: "This is the very best world that we live in. To lend or to spend or to give in; But to borrow or beg or make a man's own. It's the very worst world that ever was known."

Big Pueblo Permit Paces City Building

Valuation for Week Listed in Excess Of One-Half Million

Led by a $260,000 hotel permit, and $204,000 for a 17 house development, Palm Springs building permits climbed to $541,575 in the period Jan. 2-8.

The $260,000 permit was issued to the Pueblo Hotel, for buildings at 1983 North Palm Canyon Drive.

A TOTAL OF $204,300 in permits was issued Alexander Construction Company for 17 dwellings at $12,000 each. Permits issued are for houses at 2768, 2510, 2536, 2554, 2572, 2520, 2610, 2623, 2650, 2696, 2730 and 2792 Avenida Caballeros; 1183, 1134, 1100, 1052, and 1050 East Racquet Club Road.

Palm Springs Water Company was granted a $24,000 permit for an addition at 1345 North Palm Canyon Drive, and Towne Development Company was granted a $30,000 permit for dwelling at 1044 Marion Way.

FIVE SWIM POOL permits were issued totaling $15,500. Three for $3,000 each were issued Alexander Construction Company for 802, 816, and 830 Fair Circle. A $3,500 pool permit was issued W. G. Hercules, 1622 Sagebrush Road, and a $3,000 permit was given Alex Gottlieb, 681 Laurel Circle.

A $4,000 permit for new building was issued Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church, 204 South El Segundo, and a $4,000 addition permit was granted Lt. and Mrs. Robert White, 1020 North Riverside Drive. A. J. Trinkle, 1111 Calle de Maria, received a $1,200 permit for addition.

COUNTY RULES FOR PRIVATE PATROLS EYED

Preparation of an ordinance to provide regulation and licensing of private patrol services and their patrolmen was ordered by the Board of Supervisors this week on recommendation of the Grand Jury.

D. L. Daly, foreman, pro tem of the Grand Jury, told the supervisors, "The Grand Jury is not going on rumors. We have thoroughly investigated complaints of intimidation by so-called 'Patrolmen.' Two members of the Grand Jury have received threats in their own businesses."

The ordinance as proposed would make it a misdemeanor subject to $500 fine or 6 months in jail or both for violation including the wearing of uniforms or use of insignia similar to those of the sheriff's office.

Loveland Quits RC Planning Commission

The signing of Lloyd L. Loveland, well known Indio realtor, from the county planning commission was accepted by the Board of Supervisors this week to be effective Feb. 1 and Paul G. Jenkins of Indio was appointed to complete his term which will expire Oct. 6, 1964.

Loveland gave as his reason for resigning the necessity to devote more time to his business. He has been a member of the commission since June 18, 1956 when he was appointed to replace Robert N. Berlin of Banning who resigned at that time.

Jenkins, well known rancher and a director of the Coachella Valley Farm Center, was a member of the 1959 Grand Jury. He was graduated from U. S. C's college of commerce in 1950 and served with the Naval Air Corps during World War II. His ranch on which he grows dates and grapes is near Thermal but he resides at 82-211 Sierra Avenue in Indio.

Around Town

... with Hildy Crawford

Friday 13th has never seemed anything but amusing... conjuring up only visions of hissing black cats and ladders and salt shakers (to be shaken over the left shoulder)... Having a 13 birthday (as Edith Eddy Ward does)... I have always considered it rather lucky than otherwise... but how do you account for me losing that "13" charm right off my charm bracelet?... and what happened yesterday... just would not have been appropriate on any day except Friday the 13th... It all started when the book... which lists and holds pictures to be printed in the paper... was not in its usual place... Everything on a heavily-laden desk... and the contents of an overflowing wastepaper basket had to be searched... and finally the book was found... fallen down behind the back of a desk drawer that hasn't been emptied since the desk was new...

So that was good... but then we proceeded to unearth all the things that have ever been lost... like that missing blue alpaca sweater... souvenir buttons from the 1936 Desert Circus... a 1938 yellow book... programs from O. E. L. Graves first New York exhibit... a radio script from the days when I was a voice on KDES... and pictures and notes and carbons and a real collage of the woman's department... Now I don't know whether to stuff it all back in the drawer on the theory that it might be useful sometime... or close my eyes and aim at the wastepaper basket...

Problems, problems, problems

Reviewer Gives Talk for AAUW

"The world of the open book waits for you," asserted Mrs. Florence Casebeer, author and lecturer of Idyllwild and Pasadena, as she addressed the Palm Springs Branch of the American Association of University Women on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Herbert Burns.

Mrs. Casebeer shared humorous glimpses of her recent trip to New York City with the group while she described several contemporary authors and their works. Barbara Ward, "Five Ideas That Change the World;" Alan Paton, "Cry, The Beloved Country;" Louis Fischer, "Russia Revisited: A New Look at Russia and Her Satellites;" and Paul Tillich, "Theology of Culture," were four specific writers and books that she discussed. The speaker was introduced by Miss Hazel Gross, hospitality chairman.

President Mrs. Charles Sakin presided while Mrs. Claude Gottbeut served as refreshment chairman.

Mrs. John Alley, social worker, thanked the group for the donations of clothing and food which will be distributed among needy families in the Indian area, and Mrs. Len Owens, chairman of the drive, was appointed to study the welfare situation in India. Joan Wilcoxon, representing the Ferrall Playhouse in Deep Well, described the program for the coming season.

Finally made it over to Winsome Courtney's smart new shop... located in the Village Green... and was enchanted with the beauty of a huge painting by Sandy (Mrs. John) Payne... which hangs on the front wall in the entry room... It's a huge canvas... in what the artist calls a representative abstract... Working with tiny cubes with a kind of mosaic effect in dreamy pastel colors... she has created the evanescent beauty of a flowering English garden... although she may have had something entirely different in mind... I didn't even know Sandy paints... but learned she has four paintings in the Fort Worth Museum...

Tommy Sands and his bride Nancy Sinatra checked into El Mirador for a short stay... but may be gone now... as I've been waiting several days for a picture...

These sunny days see the Racquet Club courts in action... and Charlie Farrell is home (much impressed with Majorca) to oversee things...

Big event this evening... is the annual party at the San Lorenzo Rd. home of Bud and Vie Graves... when Bud's New Year's portrait of Vie will be unveiled... by a mystery guest (me)...

Refugees Were Hardest Hit

Hardest hit when the United States flag was hauled down from the American Embassy in Havana were 50,000 Cubans who wanted to escape the intolerable conditions existing in their homeland. So anxious were they to leave, these people who had visa applications on file were willing to give up all their material possessions and move to a strange land.

The embassy's visa section had been approving applications at the rate of 1500 a day—most of whom arrived in Florida penniless. Hundreds more were in line when the order came through to close the office. They just stood there, finding it hard to believe. Reports said that there was tragedy in their faces and tears in their eyes as they saw what they believed to be the last door to freedom closed.

These people are disillusioned and disheartened. They were for the most part supporters of Fidel Castro who has now turned against many of his most loyal elements. They just want to get away. No one can blame them in the light of events. Yet in their may lie the only hope of redemption of their homeland. It is reported that thousands are going "underground" every month. With less chance of fleeing the country, more and more can be expected to join the anti-Castro elements.

Americans—and certainly many Cubans—regret this diplomatic break with our neighbor to the south. It is the first in 60 years of friendly relationship. But the United States could no longer tolerate the insults and false charges of Fidel Castro. It means the end of usual communications, exchange of travelers and financial transactions. It seems likely that the 10-story U.S. Embassy building will be nationalized under the urban reform program.

Closing of the U.S. Embassy in Havana was probably the last action that will be taken by the Eisenhower administration in response to Castro's attacks upon the United States. The Cuban crisis will be the most serious international problem that John Kennedy will have to face immediately upon taking office. In North America, Latin America—and all around the world—people will be watching closely to see if there is any change in the relationship between the United States and Cuba which has been growing steadily worse during the past year.

Mind you, I like
The little tykes,
But, man, how they
Do zoom those bikes!

Perhaps, I am becoming the nervous kind. But when one of the kids swishes by me as I am walking down the Drive, I am glad it's a package of cleansing tissue I am carrying rather than something that splinters when it hits the sidewalk.

ACCORDING to the state law, a bicycle is a vehicle and subject to vehicle regulations.

But try piloting a vehicle on the sidewalk. You'd be looking Judge Gene Theriau in the eye so fast all of the moths would pop out of your wallet before you could unfold an engraving of Abraham Lincoln.

But the kids do roam the sidewalks without warning of any kind. You have to be well adjusted to take it.

YESTERDAY, when I refrained from writing one of these pieces because it was Friday, the 13th; and I was afraid to defy the jinx. Mrs. G said something about one of my favorite superstitions—that something bad will happen if you whistle in a newsroom.

Well, o.k., I'm in favor of that. So I am going to speak to Frank Day and Cliff Miller of KDES that when they disc jockey a record which has whistling, to let me know so that I can turn off all of the loud speakers scattered around the office.

Then I won't hear a guy whistling in the newsroom which is worse than leaving your hat on a bed.

THIS YEAR is termed the upside down year because you write 1961 and look at it from the bottom and it is still 1961.

And that is holding true in sports. The best way to gain a little scratch is to wager against the favorite. It's the upside down year.

Arnold Palmer, the favorite, failed to even qualify in the Los Angeles Open.

MINNESOTA'S Gophers, favored to beat Washington, were walloped. TV Lark, favored to win the San Carlos $50,000 handicap did well to get into the money. In the prize ring the 8-5 favorites were belted into oblivion fast.

In basketball the Golden Bears of California U. were walloped twice by Troy.

Even our favored Indian basketball team took a clobbering from an underdog Indian team. This is the upside down year and I'm going to put the grocery money on the 99-1 shots at Santa Anita.

YOU NEVER CAN win at a race track. Bet and lose and you chide yourself for poor judgment.

But win and you chide yourself for being too cautious. Should have bet twice as much.

STAN DELAPLANE:

Transition Glossary

WASHINGTON — IM — Our next president has been making appointments right and left. Sometimes it's hard to tell who is going in what direction.

I mean the Kennedy administration has been filling up so rapidly that we don't have much time, between announcements, to get a line on our new public servants.

PART OF THE difficulty is that most of the appointees already are skilled in the use of bureaucratic circumlocutions, which is the art of making a statement without saying anything.

When an appointee emerges from a conference with the president-elect, there is nothing we newspapermen can do but quote him verbatim, although there are times when a little interpretation would be more meaningful.

FOR THIS REASON, a colleague of mine has suggested that it might be helpful to newspaper readers if I prepared a sort of glossary of terms being used in this transitional period.

By keeping the glossary handy, anyone who reads what a new administration official says will be able to get some inkling of what he means.

HERE, THEN, ARE some of the sentences and phrases we have all been reading lately along with my own parenthetical attempts to explore their hidden meaning:

"I look upon this assignment as a definite challenge." Kennedy has handed me a hot potato and I don't know what I'm going to do with it.

"I view this job as an absorbing challenge." Don't worry, nobody else knows what to do about it either.

"We have no intention of letting demands for patronage take precedent over the Civil Service system." We can't find a Democrat who wants that job.

"I BROUGHT UP this problem during my discussion with the president-elect and we had a useful exchange of views." I didn't get my way.

"The president-elect assured me he would give the request sympathetic consideration." I didn't get my way either.

"I don't think it would be appropriate for me to comment on that until I officially take office." Maybe I'll solve it before he leaves.

"I INTEND to confer with my opposite number in the outgoing administration in the interests of an orderly transfer of responsibility." I'm going to watch him closely to make certain he doesn't leave me holding the bag.

"This is one of the things I will take care of immediately after I am sworn in." What's the use of having a rug if you can't sweep things under it?

"I can't give you the answer until I have cleared it with Kennedy." Which way is the New Frontier?

"THAT'S THE STORY OF MY LIFE" by box

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: We have been having an argument. Just how much of a person's success and failure is due to heredity and how much is due to environment?
STUDENTS

DEAR STUDENTS: No one really knows -- but environment is the easier of the two to improve.

DEAR ABBY: I am 23, divorced and have two children. My boy friend is 30, married and has two children also. He was my boss at one time and we fell deeply in love. A month ago I had a child by him. No one knows anything about this. The baby is in a home right now waiting for me to sign the adoption papers or take him home.

My boy friend can't get a divorce without sacrificing his family, business and religion. He said if I kept the baby he would always provide for him. Should I keep the baby and raise him with my two? Or should I give him up? Please don't ask me to give up my boy friend. I love him so much I could never do it, so there's no kidding myself.

"BIG DECISION"

DEAR BIG DECISION: The answer is not in my head -- it's in your heart. You show no concern for the baby's welfare but mention only yourself, your "boyfriend" and your determination to cling to an illicit love affair. Keep the baby only if you decide to give up your boy friend. Any other decision would complicate the lives of many innocent people.

DEAR ABBY: I am desperate. I am only 20 but weigh 160 pounds. When I go to buy a dress, it must be a size 18 with a full skirt. My measurements are (please don't print my name) 38-28-46, so you can see where my problem is. How can I reduce my problem? HIPPIY

DEAR HIPPIY: First, see a doctor about a diet. Rolling on the floor 15 minutes a day is dandy for reducing your "problem." Walking is good, too -- but not to the refrigerator.

"Who pays for what?" Send $50 to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., for Abby's pamphlet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding."

For a personal reply, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., and include a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Abby answers ALL mail.

People...Places...Things...

NEW YORK — People... Places... Things...

On the night before President Eisenhower visited Taipei last June the Mainland Chinese bombarded Quemoy and Matsu with about 150,000 rounds of shells.

It was considered a great affront to the President at the time, and we recall much muttering and pledges of eternal retaliation at a meeting with Chiang Kai-Shek's press officers.

BUT ARCHBISHOP Paul Yu-Pin, who paid a visit recently to the offshore islands, tells us that the torrential rain of ammunition proved a boon.

"Nobody was killed, thanks to God and the great defenses of the islands," he reports. "The commanders of the two islands rounded up the shell fragments, sold the scrap for the equivalent of about $100,000, and bought wristwatches for soldiers stationed there. The gifts of President Eisenhower," the men say, looking at their timepieces.

THE TASK OF having to announce officially that John Fitzgerald Kennedy won the recent Presidential election must have been the last thrust of the spear in Vice President Nixon's heart. It was the first time in a century that a loser was placed in that position, the previous and only time being when Vice President John C. Breckenridge rose before another joint session of the Congress and announced, "...and so, Abraham Lincoln is duly elected President."

A SEASONED NEW York newspaper photographer was shooting candid pictures of Joseph P. Kennedy, father of the President-elect, the other day.

"Would you mind adjusting your tie, Mr. Kennedy?" the photographer asked. Kennedy reached his hands to the knot of the tie. Just as he did the photographer took a shot.

Kennedy's face suddenly reddened.

"I DON'T LIKE that," Joe said — and really meant it. "Don't try tricking me into anything like that. If you want a picture of me adjusting my tie you tell me you want a picture of me adjusting my tie. What you did was dishonest."

The photographer, taken back by the severity of the lecture, opened the camera and handed over the film.

"I don't want your film," Kennedy said. "I just don't want to be taken in by trickery."

The unhappy photographer said, "I'm sorry. Really, I've been doing this for 40 years without thinking much about it. You've given me a lesson."

THE EXOTIC, mystery-laden never-never land of Brooklyn has been removed from those restricted U. S. areas where visiting Russians may not tread. Like Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Cape Canaveral, Fla. Poor Russians. They will be streaming over the bridges today to see what there is in that borough of New York City which Uncle Sam was so jealously guarding.

We can see the secret messages flowing back to Moscow in code.

"On Coney Island, which is disguised as amusement park, Imperialists operate paratroop training site. Picture of practice-jump tower coming by mail... certain natives, attempting to trick us, pronounce bird "boird" and curb "coib."... There is also a large levelled area near Prospect Park which natives insist somewhat angrily was known as Ebbe's Field and was scene of some game of reactionary invention. But obviously it was site of atomic tests... have detected no ICBM launching pads yet. Probably underground... sending weekly Care Package today. Regards—Ivan."

'BEAUTY AND BEAST' AT PSHS TONIGHT

Palm Springs High School representatives of American Field Service are brushing up on their French and ticket selling technique in preparation for the 8 p.m. Saturday screening of the French made "Beauty and the Beast" in the High School auditorium.

The film, described by an AFS spokesman as not bearing a close resemblance to the children's myth by the same name, will have English subtitles to aid in getting the idea across to adult viewers whose parlez-vous went dormant after the war or youngsters who haven't studied their idioms.

Margaret Lindenstein, high school chapter president of the American Field Service, explained that the film showing in the 1,100 seat auditorium is the kick-off for the $1,300 fund campaign to help finance the student exchange program here. Miss Lindenstein will introduce the current exchange students, Antoinette Van Reit, The Netherlands, and Jean-Louis Scotie, of France.

Tickets for the showing, available through student AFS personnel and at the box office, are priced at $1.25 for adults and $1 for students.

Hot Dog! We'll Eat Hot Dogs!

By GEORGE LAINE

Hot dog! You'll be able to obtain hot dogs, of a superb design and unusual taste, in short order here. It may not seem important to you but there are many of us—myself included—who have missed those two most American facets of our way of life, hot dogs and baseball. Now—within a period of about 30 days—we'll have them both. The baseball is being furnished by the Los Angeles Angels and the hot dogs by a group of four persons, some new to Palm Springs, some not.

THE HOT DOG project here is to be called "Hot Dog Show of Palm Springs" and it'll be located on Palm Canyon Drive in the location that at one time housed Pappy Landfield's little restaurant there. (I don't have the exact address, but you can't miss the spot once it is completed, so unusual in decor will it be.)

In the venture are hotdog fanciers: —Minka Zorca, an international beauty with present interest in Dallas, Tex.

—Mel Melcher, a Los Angeles businessman who has been involved in show business for at least the last 20 years.

—Herman Schacht, Los Angeles trade advertising executive who is also internationally known.

—Ernie Glaser, a Palm Springs gourmet who has served the best hotels in the world in varying capacities and who has also been a culinary confidante of kings and social leaders.

"WE'RE GOING TO feature heavenly hot dogs and out of this world hamburgers," said Glaser, yesterday.

"In our 'Hot Dog Show' these two foods will receive the ultimate glorification.

"In fact, you'll hardly believe you're eating a regular hot dog."

Hot dogs, Glaser explained, have an intrinsic niche in the American scene. Initially brought to America from Germany, they were known as "dachshunds"—because, obviously, they are shaped like the dog of the same name—but the New York natives had such a Dickens of a time pronouncing that one that adopted, instead, the title of "dog" for the foodstuff. (You figure out where the "hot" came from.)

Anyway, they're coming to town. And for those of you who have discovered that most lunches cost a buck or more, the arrival of this new venture—at about half that price—will be most welcome.

"THE ANGRY SILENCE," the award-winning English film which opens tomorrow night in the Plaza Theater here, will actually be playing to one of four American audiences to view it following its Academy Award qualifying run in Westwood's Bruin Theater. (It's also to be seen at the Loma Theater (San Diego), the Guild Theater (Las Vegas) and the Arlington Theater (Santa Barbara).

And, Hy Baer tells me, the Plaza will admit all members of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences free upon presentation of their Academy membership card.

The movie is regarded as a hot bet for Oscar honors and so are its stars—Pier Angelli and Richard Attenborough.

JAN BART

Jan Bart Will Headline Israel Bonds Dinner

Humorist Jan Bart, of radio, television and supper club fame, will entertain at the Palm Springs dinner in behalf of Israel Bonds, scheduled for 7 p.m., Jan. 22, at the Jewish Community Center, 332 West Alejo Road.

One of America's most popular lyric tenors, Bart has been a star of show business for over 20 years, first as a member of the Eugene and Willie Howard touring company, and, since 1945, as star of his own radio and television shows. A staunch believer in the future of the state of Israel, Jan has toured throughout the world and, in the United States and Canada alone, has appeared in more than 800 cities, in furtherance of the Israel Bond campaign.

Featured as guest speaker on the same program will be Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco.

Dr. George Gillman, chairman of the event, and Abe Schwartz, co-chairman, today expressed confidence that the community would help to make the dinner a "clear affirmation of our friendship for the state of Israel in this historic Bar Mitzvah year of their nationhood."

Reservations for the dinner, may be secured from local headquarters of the Israel Bond drive, 254 North Palm Canyon Drive, 324-1557.

Trying for Change

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — British beauty Diana Dors has signed for her first screen role since the birth of her baby.

The actress, who announced she will abandon sexpot roles for serious acting, will portray an international charmer who acts as a "steerer" for a gambling house in "The Big Bankroll." "I'm tired," she said, "of being called the British Jayne Mansfield."

Critic Writing Script

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Arthur Knight was signed by Allied Artists to write the script for a 60-minute television special telling the fabulous story of film pioneer D. W. Griffith.

Knight, motion picture critic for the Saturday Review, currently is teaching a course in the history of motion pictures at the University of Southern California.

LEDERER GETS LEADING ROLE IN FIRST PLAY

Francis Lederer, one of the most respected dramatic talents of our times, has been cast to play the male lead in "Marriage Go-Round" which will launch the 1961 season of the Ferrall's Playhouse at Deep Well on Jan. 24.

Lederer joins an all-star cast that also includes Jan Clayton, Anna Lisa and Michael Ferrall. Lederer will also direct the production, it was revealed.

B'nai B'rith Set For Award Fete On TV Sunday

"A Question of Chairs; The Challenge of American Education," will be screened here from 4 to 5 p.m. Sunday over KNXT, Channel Two, Los Angeles, with four stars, and featuring presidents of three major American Universities who will receive special awards.

Dr. Nathan M. Pusey, president of Harvard; the Rev. T. M. Hesburgh, chief executive of Notre Dame University, and Dr. Abram L. Sachar, president of Brandeis University, Waltham, Mass., will receive America's Democratic Legacy awards of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith.

Jack Auerbach, president of the Palm Springs B'nai B'rith lodge, announced the award screening here.

Everett Sloane will narrate the "Question of Chairs," which will feature Walter Abel, as Horace Mann.

TV Scripts Often Tickle Sense Of Humor of One Ex-Untouchable

MIAMI — It — Elliott Ness, as seen weekly on television's "The Untouchables," is a tough guy with steel nerves who crusades for law and order in a relentless battle with Chicago's bootleg barons.

But the real Elliott Ness was "nervous and tense, sort of collegiate looking, ambitious, a nice guy doing a job."

PAUL ROBESKY, one of the last three living "Untouchables," knew Ness well. He worked on Ness's squad in 1931 and 1932 and vividly recalls the hand-picked anti-gangster unit's method of operation.

A MOONSHINER once shot Robsky's hat off when he raided a still.

Robsky said his most harrowing experience took place in South Carolina when he leaped on top of a moonshiner's moving car. The moonshiner opened the door, jumped and left Robsky atop a driverless car. Robsky fired bullets into the front of the car, hoping to put the motor out of commission but only plugged the radiator.

"WHEN I JUMPED I broke my ankle," Robsky said. "But that moonshiner, poor fellow, had a bad concussion. We never tried him. He lost his reason."

Robsky retired in 1951 when he became weary of being away from home most of his time. He became bored with retirement, however, and took the position of security officer with Wackenhut Corp., which assigned him to National Airlines.

But every week Robsky can relive his past on TV, even though the dramatic license taken by the script-writers often tickles his good sense of humor.

Italy Battle Featured On 'Century'

Opposing Generals To Give Reports On Cassino Fight

"Battle of Cassino," a story of the heroic but costly allied breakthrough in Italy that paved the way to the liberation of Rome in World War II, will be presented on "The Twentieth Century" Sunday, Jan. 15 on the CBS Television Network, 6:30 - 7 p.m. CBS News Correspondent Walter Cronkite is narrator.

The program will feature eyewitness reports of the Cassino conflict by the two generals who faced each other at the time: Gen. Mark Clark, commander of the U. S. Fifth Army, and Gen. Fridolin von Zenger of Germany. General Clark was interviewed in Washington, D. C., and General von Zenger in Geneva, Switzerland.

"Battle of Cassino," written by John Toland, covers the four separate Allied assaults in the spring of 1944 against one of the most impregnable natural defense positions in Europe — the German Gustav line.

After three fruitless attempts to capture the monastery of Monte Cassino, which the Germans had fortified and occupied, the Allies bombed the abbey and town into rubble and then staged a final and successful assault. A month later Rome was liberated.

Daniel Schorr, CBS News correspondent in Bonn, Germany, is an interviewer on the program. Special music was composed by Paul Creston.

Dillon Tracks Robbers On 'Gunsmoke'

Matt Dillon tracks two bank robber-murderers on "Gunsmoke," Saturday, Jan. 14, CBS Television Network, 10-10:30 p.m.

Dillon fatally wounds one of the bandits and, weakened by a raging fever, he returns to Dodge City, where, still desperately ill, he faces the vengeful gun of the surviving bandit.

James Arness stars as Matt Dillon, Dennis Weaver, Milburn Stone, and Amanda Blake are featured as Chester, Doc and Kitty.

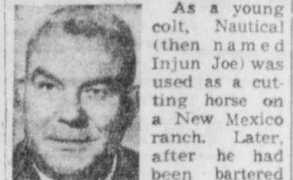

The cast includes William Redfield and Lew Brown as the bandits Joe and Red Lime; Greg Dunn as Bob Carter; James Malcolm as Harry; Rik Nervik as the townsman; Clem Fuller as Clem; Hank Patterson as Carl Miller, and Bobby Goodwins as the boy.

TV-RADIOLOGIC

Horse Star Had A Rough Start

By TOM DANSON

HOLLYWOOD: From a Western ranch to a riding academy to the U.S. Equestrian team—that's the real life story of Nautical, the golden palomino equine hero of Walt Disney's latest Technicolor featurette, "The Horse With The Flying Tail."

As a young colt, Nautical (then named Injun Joe) was used as a cutting horse on a New Mexico ranch. Later, after he had been bartered TOM DANSON to several owners, he wound up as a run-of-the-mill steed at an Eastern U.S. riding academy.

He was saved from oblivion by Bertalan de Nemethy, coach of the U.S. Equestrian team, and Hugh Wiley, Nemethy's ace rider, who spotted him one day and immediately recognized his possibilities as an international jumper.

With the result that Nautical, piloted by Hugh Wiley, jumped to spectacular success in several top international horse shows—as viewers will see in the film, which faithfully records the tremendous story of this outstanding horse.

PROUD GRANDPA

Fred MacMurray, starring in Walt Disney's "The Absent Minded Professor," became a grandfather for the first time during shooting of the wacky new comedy.

MacMurray, popular six-foot-three film star and father of four himself, was presented with a grandson by his oldest child, 20-year-old Susan Pool. News of the happy event reached MacMurray on the set at Disney Studio.

As a gag, the wardrobe man on the picture was dispatched to get a new hat for MacMurray—four sizes too large!

"It'll fit you by dinner time, Gramp," quipped Director Robert Stevenson, "when it dawns on you what you have been responsible for this day!"

MacMurray's grandson weighed in at exactly seven pounds and was named Frederick Michael for—guess who?

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

When it comes to gossip, some gals suffer from a chronic case of rumormongering!

BONUS THOUGHT

No matter how far the value of the dollar drops, it will not go lower than some people will stoop to get it!

Dennis Runs

Campaign for Friend on TV

Good old Mr. Wilson runs for City Park Commissioner on a platform of keeping the playgrounds open all week — to keep Dennis out of the neighborhood and out of his hair — in "Dennis the Campaign Manager" on "Dennis the Menace" Sunday, Jan. 15 (7:30 - 8 p.m.) on the CBS Television Network.

Without long-suffering Mr. Wilson's knowledge or permission, Dennis takes over the campaign and talks the local television station into doing a "Person to Person" type of show from the Wilsons' house.

Jay North stars as Dennis, with Herb Anderson and Gloria Henry playing his parents, Henry and Alice Mitchell. Joe Kearns and Sylvia Field play Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, the next door neighbors. Billy Booth plays Dennis' friend, Tommy, and Jeanne Russell plays Margaret. Mary Wickes plays a neighbor, Miss Cathart.

Back for Role

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Ransom Sherman returned from a two-year trip around the world to sign for the role of New York Supreme Court Judge Colton Barker in "The Big Bankroll," the Arnold Rothstein story.

ARC REGIONAL AIDE SPEAKS TO PS CHAPTER

Discussion of fund drives throughout the world was given by John Dismukes, regional director of the Pacific Area, American Red Cross, at a meeting of the Palm Springs Branch at Palm Springs Lanes.

In the United States, Dismukes said, contributions are made on basis of service, whereas in most European countries the donor is asked to buy some small trinket, such as a bottle of perfume or stamps.

He explained to the 29 persons attending how the various Red Cross chapter quotas are established and answered questions concerning the difficulties in reaching quotas.

Dismukes said he believed this section could reach its quota if every business establishment is contacted, and asked to do its share.

Waiting at the Altar

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — Mrs. Nelle Poston waited with other guests for a minister who failed to show for a wedding.

When the couple to be married and the guests arrived, the church was dark. One hour later one of the guests telephoned for another minister and the couple was married.

SANDPIPER

Ideal Weather Greets Co-Op's Owners, Guests

Ideal weather got 1961 started in the best of desert traditions with quite a little activity at Sandpiper own-your-own apartments in Palm Desert.

The James Conlys of Wilmington, Del., who had enjoyed the holidays at their cottage, entertained their daughter and family Lt. and Mrs. Charles A. Herpick and daughter, Lorin. Granddaughter Lorin stayed here while her parents attended the wedding of Lt. Herpick's brother, Ensign Herpick who was married in Los Angeles to Suzanne Christy. For fun, Lorin toppled into the Sandpiper pool and mother went to the rescue, clothes and all.

From Whittier, the William Kemps were at their cottage over the weekend with children, Donnie and Julie, and their children's friend, Genise Harvey, also of Whittier.

In the Matt Grandon apartment are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jennings with their youngster, Jill.

Newest Sandpipers owners, the Kenneth Albrights (they had their first weekend at their new cottage over New Year's eve) are entertaining this week their daughter from San Francisco, Miss Betty Albright. Betty is the former director of recreation at the Public Health Hospital there.

Jack Pollard, popular Palm Desert realtor and his wife, are entertaining an old friend at their first unit cottage this week, Mrs. R. B. Ruffcorn from Seattle, Wash. Mr. Ruffcorn was a former partner of Mr. Pollard. Strangely enough, the partners sold to Dewey Yates, another Sandpiper resident.

The Merrill Butler apartment was the scene of California hospitality last week, mixed, perhaps with a little old fashioned Desert chamber of commerce weather.

LAND PRICES MOVE BACK—BY MISTAKE

Land prices moved back many years — inadvertently — in a Classified Ad run by Paul Clark of Cathedral City.

The ad, which should have read $7,500 for an acre of land between Tamarisk and Thunderbird, came out with a price of $75.00.

Clark reported being flooded with calls.

The "victim" was Robert Douly of Pennsylvania who came West for the Rose Bowl game. The Sandpiper visit was his first to the desert and he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hawkins, and Mr. and Mrs. John Basich, all of Orange County.

JAPAN H-BOMB 'FINGERMAN' GOES PSYCHO

WACO, Tex. (UPI) — Claude Robert Earherly, 42, former Air Force major who fingered Hiroshima and Nagasaki for the first atomic bombing and has lived in horror of it ever since, was sent back to a mental hospital Thursday night.

A jury of four men and two women in the county court of Judge Raymond Mormino decided he should be committed to the Veterans Administration Mental Hospital in Waco and placed in the violent ward "for his protection and the protection of others."

It was the 10th time he has been in a mental hospital. All but two of those times, he entered voluntarily. He was ordered held in the violent ward to prevent him from escaping.

Yucaipa Runs Over Indians To Hold Lead in DV Race

Taylor's 14 High for Tribe

Yucaipa High's Thunderbirds, pre-season favorites to win the Desert Valley League basketball title, demonstrated Friday night that the forecasters were on the beam. They swept over coach Jim Workman's Indians 54 to 40 to take a 2-0 rating to date in the circuit.

Yucaipa built up a 22-14 lead at half time, evened the Tribe in the third period at 13-all and went ahead six more points in the final period.

THE DEFEAT left the Indians in the cellar of the DVL with a record of 0-2. They had been rated co-favorites with Yucaipa at the start of the season.

Tyrone Taylor dumped in 14 points to be high man for the Tribe and Carlos Reyes added 10. Mark Edwards was held to five points.

PALM SPRINGS was sharper on the floor, scoring 37 per cent.

of their shots but didn't have enough opportunities to try for the netting. Yucaipa hit 27 per cent of their tries but cashed in on 14 free throws.

In other DVL games last night, Coachella defeated the upset-minded Indio Rajahs 36-18 to go into a tie for first place with Yucaipa. Banning downed Twentynine Palms 40-30 to tie for third.

Yucaipa made a perfect night when their B team defeated the Palm Springs Bs, 42-36.

Friday night's Varsity score:

Oxnard Bowler Leads Tourney

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. — Two Southern Californians went into today's second preliminary round of the National All-Star Bowling Tournament in the first and second positions in the 240 men in the field.

The men rolled six games Friday and the women four.

Good-looking Don Gliniski, a bowling instructor at Tournament Bowl in Oxnard, Calif., led with a 1,336, followed by Hank Johnson, Riverside, Calif., with 1,327, in the National Orange Show exhibition hall.

Named Backfield Coach

VILLANOVA, Pa. — Joe Rogers, former interim head football coach at Villanova University, has been appointed backfield coach, succeeding Burley Crowe who resigned.

Foreigners in Leading Spots At San Diego

Leonard, Balding Player Head Pros, Monti Tied for Top

SAN DIEGO — A British Empire task force, headed by Canadians Stan Leonard and Al Balding, and ably assisted by Gary Player of South Africa, stands in position today to knock the financial pins from under the top U.S. professionals in the $20,000 San Diego Open golf tournament.

Leonard, from Vancouver, B. C., and Balding, from Toronto, are tied for first place at the halfway mark in the 72-hole tournament with Eric Monti of Los Angeles. Each has a 36-hole score of 135-seven under par for the distance.

IN HOT PURSUIT, only one stroke away, is Player. And still in contention — but eight strokes off the pace at 143 — is Max Faulkner of London. Another man from the Empire, Eric Brown of Glasgow, Scotland, who won $3,325 in the Los Angeles Open, failed to make the cut when he had a 144.

But there still are plenty of fine Yankee shot-makers aiming at the top prize of $2,800. Besides Monti among the leaders there were, at 137, Arnold Palmer, Jerry Barber, Billy Casper, Frank Stranahan and Frank Boynton.

BUT BALDING and Leonard, two of the older of the touring pros, may be hard to catch if their luck holds out — especially that of Leonard. The 45-year-old power-hitter got an eagle on the 10th hole despite the fact that he scuffed his second shot, hit a bridge piling and ended up 90 feet short of the pin, from there he knocked in a nine-iron shot. He also rolled in one putt of 30 feet and finished up with 18-foot birdie putts on the 17th and 18th holes.

Oliveras Hurls 3-Hitter to Win Over Chuck's, 1-0

John Oliveras of Coachella Valley Savings and Loan baseball team threw a three-hitter against Chuck's Welding at the Polo Grounds Thursday night to win 1 to 0. The victory evened up the two local entries in the Desert Resort league, tied for third place, at four won and four lost each.

Ken Price yielded only four hits to the winners but errors at the wrong time, cost him the game. The score: ... R H E
Chuck's 0 3 3
C V S L 1 4 2
Ken Price and Charley Black; Johnny Oliveras and Joe Lewis.

Orioles Sign Vets

BALTIMORE, Md. — The Baltimore Orioles have signed veteran outfielders Dave Philley and Jim Busby to 1961 contracts. Both Philley, who batted .265 in 1960, and Busby, who hit .258, were given unconditional releases at the end of the season. Both also were free agents since their releases and could have signed with any other club.

Road Races Proceeds To Aid JC Charities

Next weekend's 18th annual renewal of the Palm Springs Road Races at the local airport is sponsored by the Palm Springs Junior Chamber of Commerce in conjunction with the Los Angeles region of the Sports Car Club of America and the proceeds will be devoted to the Jaycees year-around program of charities and their youth program.

Dave Harris, local probation officer and a former amateur race driver himself, is chairman of the Jaycee committee in charge. The local club will handle ticket sales, crowd control and publicity in coordination with local authorities while the SCCA will furnish the many trained workers needed to insure the safety of spectators and drivers.

"Due to the favorable climate, interesting course and resort atmosphere, Palm Springs is the perfect site for a winter race meet," Harris said. "We are expecting the top drivers and cars from the entire West Coast."

It is going to be an international race, he said, with cars from England, Germany, France, and Italy represented as well as special models from the United States. "Old Yeller," famous racing car, is expected to be here. Advance ticket sales are available through the Jaycees for $3.50 for the two days, Jan. 21 and 22. A ticket booth will be set up on Palm Canyon Drive by the Jaycee next week.

Pender Favored at 2 to 1 Over Downes Tonight

BOSTON — Young Terry Downes of England, fearful of "home-town" officiating and plagued by a purse-tying lawsuit, will try to win champion-Paul Pender's chunk of the split mid-weight crown tonight in a 15-round fight at the Boston Arena.

It will be televised nationally by ABC at 7 p.m. PST. Rangy, dark-haired Pender of suburban Brookline, Mass., is favored at 2-1 because of his long left jab and because of the two consecutive 1960 victories over Sugar Ray Robinson that earned him Pender's recognition as 160-pound champion in Europe, Massachusetts and New York.

SHORTER, brown-haired Downes of London, champion of the British Isles, declared today, "I'm confident I can beat him if he doesn't get help from the hometown officials. I'm more concerned about them than about Pender."

Although apparently fuming over a Superior Court restraining order that tied up his expected purse of $19,000, he dourly refused to comment except for: "Certainly I'll go through with the fight, anyway, that's what I came over here for."

THE ORDER, issued late Friday, was based on a bill of equity that charged Downes with breaking a 1956 contract with would-be co-managers Walter Cartier of Scotch Plains, N. Y., and Louis P. Levy of Baltimore, after they allegedly had advanced him $500. Downes' home was temporarily in Baltimore at that time. His purse will be tied up until the trial, probably in February.

Herman Greenberg, chairman of the Massachusetts State Boxing Commission, announced that the referee tonight will be instructed to enforce the rules strictly during the bout, particularly with reference to "rabbit punching" — striking an opponent behind the head and neck, in clinches. Challenger Terry and his handlers insist that Pender was permitted to use the rabbit punch freely in both bouts with Robinson.

Newcome Plans To Rejoin L.A.

LOS ANGELES — Hurier Don Newcombe, who in 1956 paced the Brooklyn Dodgers to a pennant victory by winning 27 games, today dusted off his old baseball outfit to join the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Newcombe, 34, was made a free agent Friday by the Cleveland Indians and immediately Dodgers general manager and vice president E. J. Bavasi announced his pitcher would join the Dodgers organization at Vero Beach, Fla., for spring training.

Firestone Fifth Member of Los Angeles Angels Board

Leonard K. Firestone, of Palm Desert, president of the Palm Springs Golf Classic, and a noted Southern California sportsman, has joined the Los Angeles American League Angels as part owner and member of the board of directors, Gene Autrey, chairman of the board, announced Saturday.

The Angels will do their spring training in Palm Springs at the Polo Grounds starting Feb. 25. Firestone is president of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company of California and a director of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company of Akron, Ohio.

FIRESTONE BECOMES the fifth member of the Angels' board of directors, joining Autrey, Robert O. Reynolds, who is president of the club, Paul O'Bryan, secretary and general counsel of the team, and Joseph Thomas.

Firestone is a one-time member of the board of directors of Santa Anita race track and presently is chairman of the board of trustees of the University of Southern California. He was campaign chairman of the Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament in 1958, and is now president of the Palm Springs Golf Classic.

The new member of the board was a lieutenant in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He is a graduate of Princeton University, class of 1931. Firestone captained the polo team in his junior and senior years at Princeton when they won the intercollegiate indoor polo title in 1931.

Firestone was a football, basketball and track star at Hill School, Pottstown, Pa., before matriculating at Princeton. He was one of the original owners of the Cleveland Rams football club, now the Los Angeles Rams.

HE IS ASSOCIATED in the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company with his three brothers, Harvey S. Jr., chairman of the board, Raymond C., president and Roger S., president of the Firestone Plastics Company.

IN THE MEANTIME, Harry Voelker, of the Desert Angels Committee which is sponsoring the spring training program of the club here said that a number of ticket sale booths had been established for single admissions to all of the exhibition games. These tickets, at $2 for adults and 50 cents for children under 12 are available in Palm Springs at the Palm Springs Bowl, Barn Restaurant, Beck Brothers and the Sportsman's Center, at the Sun Air Drug in Cathedral City; Joes Liquor Store in Rancho Mirage and Palm Desert Pharmacy in Palm Desert.

TEE TIME ON THE DESERT

Jan Tarble Team Winner at Eldorado

The threesome headed by Jan Tarble and including Moushey Powell and Mrs. P. Rutledge won the third annual Eldorado Country Club Women's Invitational Friday with a 36 hole best ball score of 129.

Competing in the event were 165 women in 55 threesomes.

Second was the threesome of the Mmes. C. Wilpan, J. Capers and M. Barnes. Third spot ended in a three-way tie at 133 with the threesomes of J. Griems, W. Hunter and George Kruittinen; R. Edwards, W. Wiley and M. Findon; R. S. Daun, J. B. Hudson and C. Driskel, sharing the honors.

La Quinta Tourney

The best ball 60 fired Thursday by Dr. Eric Deutchamp and Bob Lindstrom of Oakmont CC stood up as the low score Friday when the remainder of the field completed their first 18 of the first annual La Quinta Invitational golf tournament Friday. They had a 31-29-60 Thursday.

Friday Jim Hudson and Dr. W. C. Chappell of Bel Air scored a 61 while Jerry Baer and Paul Glick of El Cabaero and M. Cardian and Dr. J. Diamond of Arrowhead, carded 64s. They are tied for second with J. G. Dyer and Milt Hicks of Thunderbird who had a 64 Thursday.

Tamarisk Auxiliary

Winners in this week's "Crier's tournament", at Tamarisk Country Club, staged by the Women's Auxiliary, were:

FIRST FLIGHT — Lillian Corfman, first; Clarise Floan, second; Verna Cate, third.

SECOND FLIGHT — Ruth Blank first; Loretta Holub, second; Ben Goldstein, third.

In the 18-hole tournament, the players were permitted to disregard their two worst hole scores. Members of the Auxiliary will stage a 36-hole electric tournament Jan. 17 and 24, the winner being based on the best 18-hole card of either day.

Belts Hole in One — The women can belt the ball with the best of them and the men had best look to their laurels.

Mrs. Marion Williams of Thunderbird took a No. 3 wood to a golf ball on the 151-yard par 3 7th hole at Eldorado Country Club Thursday and — She had a hole in one.

At Indian Wells

Third annual women's invitational golf tournament is scheduled to get underway next Monday with the finals set for Tuesday at Indian Wells Country Club.

A mixed Scotch foursome tournament will precede the event.

Food for Thought

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Chemical News Bureau reports that the Malthusian formula, out of vogue for a century, is winning new recognition as the world's birth rate increases.

Rev. Ball will discuss the questions: When is unity among denominations desirable? What is the nature of the newly formed union between Congregational-Christian and Evangelical—Reformed denominations? What is the relationship of the local church to the United Church?

On Sunday evening, Jan. 22, the Community Church of North Palm Springs will vote on acceptance of the national constitution of the new United Church.

CHARLES MC ALLISTER

Angeleno Due In Speaker Role At Baha'i Rite

Charles McAllister of Los Angeles will be the speaker at the 12th anniversary observance of World Religion Day by the Palm Springs Baha'i Community. The topic will be "The Fundamental Oneness of Religion."

McAllister is a graduate of Pepperdine College and has done graduate work at the University of California. He taught for a number of years in the Los Angeles school system and at present is on the faculty of the Exceptional Children's Opportunity School in Los Angeles.

World Religion Day is a National Baha'i event and observances will be held this Sunday in some 1,500 Baha'i Centers in the United States and in many other countries. Sponsored by the Baha'i World Faith, its purpose is to spread the knowledge of the fundamentals common to the world's great religions as the bedrock for universal peace.

The local observance will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hendershot, 1975 El Oro Way, on Sunday, Jan. 15 at 2:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend this meeting.

'Paul' Is Subject For Rev. Arnold

CATHEDRAL CITY — The Rev. James W. Arnold, pastor of the Cathedral City Community Church, will use as his sermon topic at the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday "Paul, a man who found a vital faith." Text is "I can do all things in Him who strengthens me," Philippians 4:13.

Sunday Church School will be held at 9:30 a.m. The Chancel Choir will sing the anthem. A nursery will be provided for the morning worship.

John Allen Hudson, minister of the Church of Christ, Scientist, will speak on "Wages and Gifts of God" at the 11 a.m. service Sunday in the City Council chambers.

His 7 p.m. topic will be "Christ's Concern for His Tempted Follow-

Community To Observe Groundbreak

Ceremony Slated To Launch Church's New Sanctuary

A short groundbreaking ceremony will take place between the two morning worship services at the Community Church of Palm Springs. Various representatives of the church family will participate in the service, including Carl G. Lykken, charter member and church officer for 41 years.

The Beginner's Department of the Sunday School will represent the youth of the church. Patty Lenox, first grader will sing "Jesus in the Temple." Mrs. Helen H. Schiff of Seattle, Wash., will represent the winter visitors.

FAY BRAINARD, chairman of the board, and Dr. J. Robertson Macartney and Rev. Bertram B. Weatherall, the two Pastors Emeritus will have a part in the service which will be held on the church parking lot, the site of the new sanctuary, at 10:30 a.m.

At the morning worship services Dr. James Blackstone, pastor, will preach on the subject "Our Stewardship," emphasizing the responsibility of Christians to use their time, talents and abilities in the service of the Lord Jesus Christ.

SUNDAY SCHOOL will be held at the usual hour of 9:30 but parents who call for their children should remember that the Sunday School will participate in the groundbreaking ceremonies.

Youth groups meet at 6:15 in the evening and a newly organized parents group will meet at the same hour for discussion and Bible Study. The youth hour will be followed by the regular evening service at 7:30 when a religious film portraying the story of an orphan in Japan will be shown.

Series Continued By Rev. Kagiwada

INDIO — The sermon by the Rev. David T. Kagiwada at the Coachella Valley Christian Church, Avenue Fifty at Jackson, this Sunday will be "Antidote for Loneliness." The service is at 11 a.m., preceded by the Church School hour at 9:30 a.m.

The sermon is the second in a series entitled "How Faith Meets Life." Child care is provided during the hour of worship.

Other meetings on Sunday are at 6 p.m. when the youth fellowship and Bible study and discussion group meets. The latter is an informal group designed for any person who is interested in deepening his understanding of the Christian Faith.

The United States uses about 312 billion gallons of water a day. About 515 billion gallons per day is available.

Trinity Baptist Hosts State Council

The Trinity Baptist Church of Indio will host the State Council of the Conference Baptists of Southern California, Jan. 20 and 21.

The 120 member State Council includes a pastor and two laymen from each church in the conference. Business sessions will be moderated by Ross Pollock, insurance executive from Los Angeles.

The executive offices of the Conference Baptists is in Covina. Rev. John Gates is the Church Extension Director.

Arrangements have been made for a Pastors Golf Tournament early Saturday morning at the Cochran Ranch Golf Course.

The Women's Missionary Society of the local Church will serve the State Council a luncheon Jan. 21. Mrs. J. B. Whitton is in charge of the arrangements; Mrs. Ray Parson, chairman of the serving committee; and Mrs. Truman Ratliff, decoration chairman.

Scientists Will Hear Special Speaker Sunday

How to gain dominion over fear through the scientific healing method of prayer will be the topic of a free public lecture on Christian Science in Palm Springs on Sunday, Jan. 15.

Richard L. Glendon of Los Angeles will speak in Plaza Theater 128 So. Palm Canyon Dr. under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist at 3:00 p.m. His subject will be How Christian Science Heals Fear.

A native of Denver, Colorado, Mr. Glendon became interested in Christian Science as a boy. He withdrew from business in 1934 to devote his full time to the public practice of Christian Science healing. During World War II, he was active as a Christian Science War-time Minister.

He has served as moderator of several television programs in the series "How Christian Science Heals." He is currently on extended tour as a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship.

Communion Rite Due for St. Paul's

At both the 9 and 11 o'clock services of morning prayer in St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church, the Rev. Dr. Frederick A. Barnhill will preach on the subject "Each to Another." Holy Communion will be celebrated at the 8 o'clock service.

The annual parish meeting of St. Paul's will be held in Hogarth Hall on Thursday evening, Jan. 19, with a pot-luck supper beginning at 6:30. At this meeting new vestrymen are elected, the budget for 1961 adopted and the program of the church for the new year outlined.

Develop Fiber

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI)—Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Co. has developed a fiber which retains its flexibility and part of its strength after exposure to intense heat.

The new fiber, available as a fabric, will not char or melt. Its possible uses include fire-protective curtains and lining for the motor compartments of missiles.

'HAVE BIBLE, WILL TRAVEL' GULIAN TOPIC

INDIO — At 11 a.m. services Sunday the Rev. George Gulian will speak to the Trinity Baptist Church of Indio on, "Have Bible—Will Travel." The sermon text will be taken from Luke the 14th Chapter. Mrs. John Phelan will bring a special message in song.

At 9:45 a.m. Sunday, Bible School begins. There are Sunday School classes for every age, and a crib room is staffed for the convenience of mothers with small children.

The Junior High and High School CYF will meet at 6:15 p.m. for their regular meeting. The program Sunday evening, "Gals Galore," will be presented entirely by girls.

DHS Lutherans Set For Initial Service

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — At 8 a.m., Jan. 22, regular Lutheran church services will begin in Desert Hot Springs.

Worshippers will meet each Sunday at the large residence at the corner of West and Grenada. Rev. Walter H. Reuning, Pastor of Our Savior's Lutheran Church of Palm Springs will conduct this first service and each regular Sunday service to come.

THE LOCAL CONGREGATION will be sponsored by the Palm Springs Lutheran Church, as a daughter congregation. All people of the Desert Hot Springs area are invited to attend.

A Sunday School for children will be regularly held after morning service at 9:15 a.m. Many persons interested in the new church from both desert communities have spent many hours adapting the residence for church use and in conducting good will visits in most of the homes of the city.

THE COMMITTEE responsible for launching the venture consists of Mr. Joseph Bush of Desert Hot Springs, Mr. Richard Craig, Mr. Duke Leifeldt, and Mr. Jerry Leifeldt, all of Palm Springs.

Instrumental in making early contacts among the Lutherans of the community was Mr. H. Rognie of Desert Hot Springs. For further information the following numbers may be called: 329-3095, 324-2887.

LOVE OF GOD DUE AS LESSON-SERMON

How the health and harmony are established will be brought out in the Lesson - Sermon entitled "Life" in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

The theme emphasized in the sermon is keynoted in this statement from Deuteronomy (8:22), "Ye shall walk in all the ways which the Lord your God hath commanded you, that ye may live, and that it may be well with you, and that ye may prolong your days in the land which ye shall possess."

Mary Baker Eddy asserts in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," "Our proportionate admission of the claims of good or of evil determines the harmony of our existence, — our health, our longevity, and our Christianity." Again she says, "Let us feel the divine energy of Spirit, bringing us into newness of life and recognizing no mortal nor material power as able to destroy. Let us rejoice that we are subject to the divine 'powers that be.' Such is the true Science of being." (pp. 167, 249)

The Golden Text is from I John (3:11), "This is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son."

FIRST WINNER OF KDES jackpot is Neal I. Bass, right, who received a check for $13.80 for hearing his initials aired on the big 920 station, and calling the studio within seconds. Bass, an employee of Oasis Plumbing Company, received his Jackpot prize Tuesday morning from KDES manager Norm Loftus. The game with initials broadcast 10 times daily is cumulative, with added cash put in the Jackpot each time no winners call. All the money in the prize pot at the time a winner calls in goes to the individual winner. The Jackpot resumed Tuesday morning with $9.20 as base prize. (Desert Sun Photo)

Ike's $42-Billion Defense Budget Is Record Total

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The new defense budget that President Eisenhower will send to Congress next Monday calls for a record peacetime outlay of $42.9 billion, an increase of $1.4 billion over estimates for the current fiscal year.

But it falls short by close to $1 billion of providing what the armed forces believe they need to carry on the stepped up defense effort that Eisenhower ordered last summer.

Several aircraft, missile and space projects are marked for cutbacks and stretch-outs. Funds for daily operation and maintenance of the forces have been given what an authority called a "harsh squeeze."

The Kennedy administration, with a background of campaign claims that defenses are inadequate, will be under immediate pressure to expand them.

Eisenhower's final defense blueprint is for the fiscal year that starts next July 1.

Heavy emphasis, as in past years, is on intercontinental missiles and other massive-retaliation forces designed to prevent global war. But there also is an increase for modernized weapons and airlift for forces to prevent or counteract limited aggression of the type that the Pentagon expects the Communists increasingly to risk.

Automobile commuter traffic in the San Francisco Bay Area has increased 50 per cent during the past five years.

LEGAL NOTICE

NO. 699

NOTICE TO PERSONS INTERESTED IN THE ESTATE OF THOMAS F. DRYLIE (Deceased)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN: To all persons interested, whether as creditors, heirs, legatees, or devisees, in the estate of THOMAS F. DRYLIE, deceased, whose last address was Box 172, Issaquah, King County, Wash., that letters testamentary or of administration have been issued to Effie Evelyn Drylie, by King County Superior Court, a court of competent jurisdiction of the State of Washington.

That each of the following persons is indebted to or holding personal property of the said decedent:

Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association, Palm Springs Branch, 150 North Palm Canyon Drive, Palm Springs, California.

That the undersigned desires to receive the said personal property or collect the claims and to remove that collected or received from the State of California to the said state where letters testamentary or of administration have been issued.

All persons having claims against the decedent or an interest in said estate and wishing to object to such removal must give written notice of such objection to the person or persons indebted to, or holding personal property of, the decedent. Such notice must be given to be person or persons holding the personal property or against whom the claim is made at the address as listed above within three months after first publication of this notice.

Conrads in Return After Holiday Trip

The Clarence Conrads, apartment 44, have returned after spending the holidays with their daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. John Cook, Robbie and Lori at Van Nuys.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Olson of Victoria, B. C., where he is manager of the Strathcona Hotel, were recent visitors with the H. B. Olsons, apartment 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rigney, apartment 11, have returned from a trip to Salt Lake City where they attended the wedding of their granddaughter, Joan Bolinger. The newlyweds, now Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Porter are honeymooning at the Bolinger apartment 35 at Braemar.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schutt of San Francisco are spending a few days at the John McClelland apartment. Mr. Schutt is an executive of the Bank of California in the bay city and a former resident of Longview, Wash., which is the home of the McClellands.

Residents of Braemar were saddened by word from Chicago of the death of Mrs. E. V. Anderson after an illness of a number of months.

Dr. Herman Biermer, apartment 226, spent the holidays here and has now returned to his home in San Mateo.

The J. T. Careys in apartment 1 are visiting in Chicago and will return to Braemar in a few days.

In the meantime Mr. Carey's sister, husband and son are occupying the Carey apartment. Mr. Wood, the brother-in-law, is connected with Montgomery Ward & Co. in Los Angeles.

Tim and Isabel Wallace, apartment 240, were recently involved in a serious automobile accident in the Santa Ana area, a head-on collision which resulted in Mrs. Wallace being confined to the Community Hospital at Santa Ana. Mr. Wallace suffered several fractured ribs and an arm broken in three places.

The Harry Hills, apartment 225 arrived recently but Mr. Hill was called back to Anchorage, Alaska, on business, to return later.

The John Kennelly's of Fargo, N. D., will occupy their Braemar apartment No. 25 for the season.

Wave of Sympathy Engulfs Arreola Survivors

By RAFAELA MARMOLEJO V

About three weeks ago les dije (I said) that the saying goes, "the show must go on" . . . si (yes) . . . eso dije (I said that), and I shall say it again . . . Life must go on no matter what happens, it goes on para Ud. para mi for you and me) until our time comes para dejar de existir (when we are called), like all our loved ones have departed.

Creo Uds. se dan cuenta de lo ocurrido (I believe you are aware of what happened to us) . . . and both my sisters, senora Carmen Martinez of 108 Mabrey and Sidronia M. Villegas of 31-621 Rodeo Drive join me in thanking every single person que nos acompaño (that accompanied us) during our time of bearevement . . . Desamamos (we would like) to thank the many people that sent floral offerings o mensajes (or messages) of sympathy in any form.

WE WERE GRATEFUL to the many calls, and notes of encouragement cuando mas lo necesitabamos (when we needed it the most), during the loss of our beloved nephew Manuel Arreola of Banning, Calif., on Dec. 17, and then the loss on Dec. 29, of our unforgettable mother Jovita Marmolejo Romero.

We are so grateful to all perp (but) forgive us, because all we can say right now is "GRACIAS. Gracias mil" . . . "Thank you, a thousand thanks" . . . May they Rest in Peace.

Ranch Lettuce Workers Walk Off Job Today

EL CENTRO (UPI) — Smoldering unrest among Imperial Valley lettuce field workers came to a head today when 83 union members walked off their jobs at the Bruce Church Ranch 2 miles south of Brawley.

A union spokesman said the California Farm Labor Placement Service at Sacramento was advised by telegram that the walk-out was staged to enforce demands for a 35-cent hourly pay increase and other benefits.

WE WERE GRATEFUL to the many calls, and notes of encouragement cuando mas lo necesitabamos (when we needed it the most), during the loss of our beloved nephew Manuel Arreola of Banning, Calif., on Dec. 17, and then the loss on Dec. 29, of our unforgettable mother Jovita Marmolejo Romero.

We are so grateful to all perp (but) forgive us, because all we can say right now is "GRACIAS. Gracias mil" . . . "Thank you, a thousand thanks" . . . May they Rest in Peace.

The Best the Desert has to Offer

Less than two years after its opening, the Bermuda Dunes championship golf course in the sun-drenched Palm Springs-Indio desert resort area has been chosen to co-host two of golfing's richest tournaments, the Palm Springs Golf Classic (beginning February 1, 1961) and the United States Senior Open Championship. Never before in golfing history has such a "young" golf course been selected as the scene for such important play, a solid tribute to the talents of William F. Bell who designed this sporty and spectacular 18-hole course.

Truly no other desert locale has so much to offer in sun and recreational activities as Bermuda Dunes.

Your complimentary full-color Bermuda Dunes brochure is waiting for you. Just write Bermuda Dunes, Drawer "N," Palm Springs, Calif.

- BIG, DUNE-TOP LOTS WITH MAGNIFICENT DESERT VIEWS

Hizzoner — Palm Springs (very own "Honorary Mayor" Bob Hope once made these comments concerning a Christmas show he did in Naples, Italy: . . . "It's a great city and they paid me a great honor this morning. They made ma an honorary Italian. It's quite a ceremony. The Mayor of Naples tapped me on the shoulder with a bread-stick while his assistant sprinkled grated cheese on my head." . . . "I'm delighted to be here in Italy, although somewhat surprised. It's the last time I let Colonna pilot the plane." . . . "It's a long way to come just so he can buy Lasagna at a discount house."
